

Are You an Olive Oil Virgin?

Share the Spirit Foundation was delighted to host a fundraising event on March 29, 2008, with Mario Rizzotti, Academia Barilla's Italian Culinary Specialist, and celebrity judge on the popular Food Network series, Iron Chef America.

As the guests sipped olive oil and balsamic vinegar, (ok we also had fabulous food and wine served by Quartino Ristorante) they were educated by Mario on ways to enjoy the finest Italian oils and vinegars. This was such a great event ... Mario spent time after the presentation to answer questions and sign aprons that were given to each participant.

Share the Spirit Foundation is excited to bring you Academia Barilla's Italian Culinary Specialist, and celebrity judge on the popular work series, Iron Chef America.
